

DOKTRIN

ISSUE No.3
OCT. · NOV. 1983
$9.⁰⁰

OKKULT MIRROR MAGICK & EVOKATION

HAIR & KOSMETICS IN ANCIENT BABYLON

THE NINTH HEAVEN

AN EXKLUSIVE INTERVIEW WITH ENRIQUE ABU

WHAT IS YOUR IDEAL DATE?

– I have never been on a date, so I wouldn't know. Perhaps attending a witches' sabbat together could be romantic?

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE ANIMAL?

– Pets were forbidden in our household growing up. Sea serpents are pretty cool.

WHAT MADE YOU GUYS CHOOSE THE NAME THE NINTH HEAVEN?

– Ninth Heaven was a discontinued Babylonian cosmetics brand our stylist used. I thought it sounded like the perfect band name. But it could be I only dreamed that.

EVER PLAYED ANY GOOD PRANKS?

– I sacrificed a bunch of swans on stage during our show at Loch Ness. But that never happened, actually. It's a lie.

A STRANGE RUMOR IS CIRCULATING ABOUT YOUR NEW SINGLE 'MAGICK MIRROR.' IS IT TRUE?

– The fans say if you play MAGICK MIRROR nine times in a row at midnight, unicorns or elves appear in the mirror—provided there is a mirror in the room. (I never tried it.)

FINISH THIS SENTENCE:

"HAPPINESS IS A THING CALLED.....

– THE NINTH HEAVEN!!!